

I would like to file opposition to the proposed amendment to allow cell phone use in flight. As an academic surgeon i use airline time to catch up on work and to relax. Cellular phone use would be an imposition on my ability to this and would not protect my rights to a safe and comfortable cabin environment. In addition the impact of multiple cell phone users in an enclosed environment for an extended time has not been well studied and the potential health hazards of this are not well understood.